Dear Honourable On Sec,

It is with great regret that I must tender my resignation from the BMH3 as Hash Cash. Tonight was the final humiliation. (But last week was almost as bad!) Last Monday I thought I would give the GM the chance of paying his subs just like anybody else, voluntarily. But because HE didn't pay (voluntarily) I was accused of mismanagement (and me a hard working wanker banker) and was forced to down down. This week after the GM finished his run I politely asked him to pay up and what does he do but throw a beer on my (recently cleaned) Raincoat. And it was a full beer worth about Baht 150. Well if that's the thanks I get for serving his bidding well f__k it! And there it is I resign so piss of GM.

Yours sincerely and On On Hash Cash.

PS On second thought how will I get my kids through college without raking off the hash cash. I take my resignation back. GM I am your servant forever....HC

Why I Sacked My Secretary

When I started to the office I was feeling pretty low and despondent. As I walked into my office, my secretary, Janet said, "Good Morning, Boss, Happy Birthday." And I felt a little better; someone had remembered. I worked until noon. About noon Janet knocked on my door and said, "You know it's such a beautiful day outside and it's your birthday, let's go to lunch, just you and me." I said, "By George, that's the greatest thing I've heard all day. Let's go." We went to lunch. We didn't go where we normally go; we went out into the country to a little private place. We had two martinis and enjoyed lunch tremendously.

On the way back to the office, Janet said, "You know, it's such a beautiful day, we don't need to go back to the office, do we?" I said, "No, I guess not." She said, "Let's go to my apartment."

After arriving at Janet's apartment, we had another martini and smoked a cigarette. Janet said, "Boss, if you don't mind, I think I'll go into the bedroom and slip into something more comfortable." "Sure," I excitedly replied. She went into the bedroom and in about six minutes, she came out . . . . . carrying a big birthday cake, followed by my co-workers, wife and children. All were singing Happy Birthday. And there on the couch I sat . . . . . with nothing on but my socks.
